From Haiti to Missouri: The Impact of the Late Flore Zéphir in Higher Education

1 p.m. Wednesday, May 2
Columns Room C, Reynolds Alumni Center
University of Missouri

Speakers will include:

- Harry Fouché, former Haitian diplomat
- Valerie Kaussen, University of Missouri associate professor of French
- Gloria Williams, Lincoln University assistant professor of foreign language

PARKING: Visitor parking for this event is available in the Turner Avenue Garage (corner of Turner and Tiger avenues) on levels 3, 6 and 7. More information about visitor parking is available at parking.missouri.edu/parking/html/visitor.

Learn more about the Lincoln-Missouri Partnership: lincolnu.missouri.edu

A land-grant university partnership for a stronger Missouri future.